

Broker Tremmel regulates succession

Management-Buyout 100% acquisition by B.B.C.G. Rainer Bergmann

Frankfurt/Main, 22nd October 2018

The traditional brokerage house, founded in 1983 as Börsenmakler Andreas Tremmel, one of the oldest securities trading houses at the Frankfurt Stock Exchange regulates succession.

As part of a management buyout the managing director Rainer Bergmann acquired 100% stake at Tremmel Wertpapierhandelbank GmbH.

“As one of the Oldest Brokerage Houses in Frankfurt we have always managed to honor tradition while at the same time to integrate innovations. Not fleeting change, but continuous development is the basis for the trust of our clients and employees for more than 30 years, but now is the time to hand over in good and experienced hands.

As Owner I welcome it, that our long-standing employee and current managing director, Mr. Rainer Bergmann takes over the company. With over 20 years of extensive expertise in capital markets, especially in securities and bond brokerage he has worked for various leading brokers in different positions in Frankfurt and Berlin.

Mr. Bergmann has experience of developing into new markets and technologies, he led successfully processes of application, upgrades or of increasing to obtain full banking licenses in Germany for clients or as Founder, Partner and Member of the Board of a privately-owned Bank in Frankfurt. He is licensed in accordance with German Banking Act and is approved as a Member for a Bank by German Regulatory Authorities”, stated Mr. Andreas Tremmel, the Founder of Tremmel Wertpapierhandelbank GmbH.

“My vision is to create a firm in the banking industry which combines the traditional art of trading, with the science of technology and to develop the company into new markets to generate value to our customers”, is the stated strategy of new owner Rainer Bergmann.
